Illusion

Kylie Minogue

This situation's taking over me
Can't you see?
I'm in trouble
Infatuation's got a hold on me
A little jealousy
I'm not myself at all
I'm surrounded by confusion
And I'm lost in this illusion
You serenade me at the ball
Hiding from it all
Behind a disguise
Who's the man who's at the masquerade?
Wish I had've stayed
Just to drown in lies
Like the headline of a magazine
Are you what you seem?
Because I'm losing my belief
Cannot make it when there's so much doubt
Someone help me out
'Cause I'm in too deep
I'm surrounded by confusion
And I'm lost in this illusion
Follow my dreams into distant lights
Blowin' in the wind over shifting signs
I'm in too deep
I'm surrounded by confusion
And I'm lost in this illusion
I'm surrounded by confusion
I'm so lost in this illusion
