Surprise

Filter

Dark sunrise from the night on the run
I've gone blind from the sight of the sun
A heart full of truth 'cause I paid my dues
A head full of noise and something to loseBut she Talks me down from the edge
And she
Talks me down from the ledge[Chorus]
Surprise, surprise for you
No lies, just eyes for you
Teach me all that you know
So that I will bask in your glowA light shoots out with a beam so bright
Your angels dance for your delight
You've got nothing at all but you hold on tight
It's a dangerous world but you live life rightAnd she
Is the world to me
And she
Is the world to me[Chorus]And she
Is the world to me
And she
Is the world to meYeeeeeah Woooooh[Chorus]
