Stupid Stupid

Alex Day

Stupid, stupid
Nananana
Nananana
You tell stories
That aren't going anywhere
Toast pops
You scream
Some how always unprepared
Heard the doorbell
I say it was on TV
That won't stop you
Calling out into the empty street
You left the keys inside (so you)
Got locked out in the rain (but you)
But you know I'm always here (let you)
To let you in and say
You're stupid stupid
You're stupid stupid
You're stupid stupid
And I love you
Last week I did not remember our anniversary
You said that must be cos' I'm a Sagittarius
You don't (I don't)

Make time (make time)
For me (for you)
This is such a shock
It's strange how you missed that
When you read both of our horoscopes
You wouldn't eat that pie
It looked like it had eyes
Next time you go without I'll shout
You're stupid stupid
You're stupid stupid
You're stupid stupid
And I love you
And when you've heard this song
I know just what you'll say
I'm stupid stupid

I'm stupid stupid
I'm stupid stupid
And you love me
We're stupid stupid
We're stupid stupid
We're stupid stupid
And you love me
And I love you
