Tearing It Down

Tgt

Face down, waistline
She saying hold on, take mine
Take down, oh, me, you tell meYeah, it's time to tear up the room
When we go up
High enough that I can see the flames bout to go up
We gonna burn this motherfucker to the ground
Build another oneYou are so good for me
You brought my name '
'Cause you're tearing it down
Girl, I'm tearing it down
The lights came out to shake a feel
You're all about to break
'Cause you're tearing it down
Girl, I'm tearing it down
Oh, tearing it downGirl, tonight belongs to me
Belongs to me
Face down, soft sound
She saying take me
And I'm about to lose it
It's a G code and I'm in the beast mode
She starts to whisper
'Have me how you like me'Yeah, it's time to tear up the room
When we go up
High enough that I can see the flames bout to go up
We gonna burn this motherfucker to the ground
Build another oneYou are so good for me
You brought my name '
'Cause you're tearing it down
Girl, I'm tearing it down
The lights came out to shake a feel
You're all about to break
'Cause you're tearing it down
Girl, I'm tearing it down
Oh, tearing it downYeah, that's all I wanna hear
Yeah, that's all I wanna hear
Yeah, that's all I wanna hearI don't wanna move
I just wanna be right where you are
All these men'
Can't wait too far

Let me finish my renovation
Turn up, make some walls
And create some stimulation
Yeah, I'm going hard
Girl, won't you feel my creation?
You gonna let me build it
Till that thing look amazingYeah, it's time to tear up the room
When we go up
High enough that I can see the flames bout to go up
We gonna burn this motherfucker to the ground
Build another oneYou are so good for me
You brought my name '
'Cause you're tearing it down
Girl, I'm tearing it down
The lights came out to shake a feel
You're all about to break
'Cause you're tearing it down
Girl, I'm tearing it down
Oh, tearing it downGirl, tonight your bad ass belongs to me
Belongs to me
