I'll Keep On Trying

Uriah Heep

Oh oh
You came to me with all of your lies
And I was taken in so well
Took me quite a time to see the disguise
You made it very hard to tell
Now here you are again but you're beggin' in vain
'Cause I really don't want to know
Oh oh
You came to me with a little bit of charm
You had me down on my knees
I didn't really think there was any harm
But all you ever did was tease
You took all the love that I ever had to give
And there was nothing left to show
Oh oh
Well I remember everything, everything around me
The long dark winter till the breath of spring
Came close enough to drown me
So I'm gonna keep on trying till I feel like dying
And I lay down and pass away
But that won't happen till tomorrow and by then I can borrow another day
So I'm gonna keep on trying, yea
You came to me with a little bit of charm
And you had me down on my knees
I didn't really think there was any harm
But all you ever did was tease
You took all the love that I ever had to give
And there was nothing left to show
Oh oh
