Lion's Share

Wild Beasts

I find you hid in Mirrorville
Creature of the deep
Waifish as a widow
And without sufficient sleepOh, what am I supposed to think?
Do I pull you out?
Or do I let you sink?I wait until you're woozy
I lay low until you're limp
I take you in the mouth
Like a lion takes his gameI love you all the more
Forever we thought
But how it got within me
How I cracked the vault'Cause it's a terrible scare
But that's why the dark is there
See you don't have to see
What you can't bear, the lion's shareLion's share
I took the lion's share
Not 'cause I didn't care
Just 'cause I knew it was thereOh, oh, oh, lion's share
I took the lion's share
Not 'cause I didn't care
Just 'cause I knew it was thereBoy, whatcha running from?
Boy
Boy, whatcha running from?
Boy'Cause it's a terrible scare
But that's why the dark is there
See you don't have to see
What you can't bear, the lion's shareBoy, whatcha running from?
Boy
Boy, whatcha running from?
Boy'Cause it's a terrible scare
But that's why the dark is there
See you don't have to see
What you can't bear, the lion's share
