Every Ship Must Sail Away

Blue Merle

Have you ever heard the sounds in the shadows of a song?
Have you ever felt the words blow right through from beyond?
Years pass, people change, bluer skies could turn to gray
Though it's gonna hurt for now, every ship must sail away
Every ship must sail awayOh, change is in the air and you wear it, oh, so well
I asked you if you cared, if you care I couldn't tell
'Cause years pass, people change, bluer skies could turn to gray
Though it's gonna hurt for now every ship must sail away
Every ship must sail wayThough it's gonna hurt for now, though it's gonna hurt for now
Though it's gonna hurt for now every ship must sail away
Every ship must sail away, every ship must sail away
Every ship must sail away, every ship must sail away
