

Runaway Train

Shoshana Bean

I got love like youâ€™ve never seen
With a two ton heart like a wheel spinning dreams
And you been crawling way too slow
Well get up my baby and move it's time to go
You say speed wonâ€™t build to last
But Iâ€™m coming at you fast
Ainâ€™t no sugarcoated truth you can outrun

My loveâ€™s on the loose like a runaway train
And Iâ€™m warning you not to get in my way
Your feet donâ€™t move you know youâ€™re gonna get hit
You better find the strength to push back on it
My loveâ€™s on the loose like a runaway train

I can hear the gears grind as you slam on the brakes
But when iron hits the steel
Thatâ€™s when a spark becomes a flame
Take my lead and just let go
Cuz the ride is so much better when youâ€™re outta control
You say speed wonâ€™t build to last
But Iâ€™m coming at you fast
Ainâ€™t no sugarcoated truth you can outrun

My loveâ€™s on the loose like a runaway train
And Iâ€™m warning you not to get in my way
Your feet donâ€™t move you know youâ€™re gonna get hit
You better find the strength to push back on it
My loveâ€™s on the loose like a runaway train

Iâ€™m headed your direction
Like a bullet to your heart
Oh tell me baby, are you ready to get onboard
