Control

Bernhoft

Have you ever?
Ever had to stand and just watch while your life was like a game on your x-box?
Welcome to the club, I'm the president (incumbent)
We're almost like a nation of fools
Where public spending's cut down to naught
We're clutching at invisible straws
But noone's here to tell where they lead to, how to tell us who's inControl
I'm not in control
I seem to be but no (no control)
Our lives are a river where we are swimming frantically,
Belly-up just trying to obtain
Control
We fail to take control
Fail to swim ashore
It's all up in the air and I'd much rather go down river
than go down like a lead balloon
The bottom's never the place to be
Why not surf on the surface with me
It's easy and won't ruin your make-up (wake up)
Don't bother with the deep end anymore
I got happiness served on a plate for you
That old bliss on a table for two
Nothing in the water to weigh you down, just throw out all yourControl
I'm not in control
I seem to be but no (no control)
Our lives are a river where we
are swimming frantically,
Belly-up just trying to obtain
Control
We fail to take control
Fail to swim ashore
It's all up in the air and I'd
much rather go down river
than go down like a lead balloon
I never claimed the answerBut I know what it's not Why fight the modulator

When he comes to lift you up than go down like a lead balloonThe bottom's never the place to be Why not surf on the surface with me
It's easy and won't ruin your make-up (wake up)
Don't bother with the deep end anymore
I got happiness served on a plate for you
That old bliss on a table for two
Nothing in the water to weigh you down, just throw out all yourControl
I'm not in control
I seem to be but no (control)
Our lives are a river where we
are swimming frantically,
Belly-up just trying to obtain
Control
We fail to take control
Fail to swim ashore
It's all up in the air and I'd
much rather go down river
than go down like a lead balloonI never claimed the answer
But I know what it's not Let go and let in a little Modulation to lift you up
