So Low (feat. Randy Blythe)

Pitch Black Forecast

Darkness swallowed by dawn / All of our heroes are gone
We hide from the sun / Buried and numb
The light reminds us of our loss
No matter how hard I try to forget / Your memories all I have left
Stranded / Abandoned / Branded with this
Broken emotional debtAs I pour my heart out / You spill my blood
Made me believe / Only to leave me numb
Why did it have to go wrong / Alone I am left with this song
So Low
Not all that glitters is gold / Memories are bought and sold
A man can be measured on whether is soul / Chooses to raise or to fold
Behind all your ribbons and bows / Lies a girl nobody knows
Hide from those that you hold close / Blame it on the chaperone
