Pop Singer

John Mellencamp

Never wanted to be no pop singer
Never wanted to write no pop songs
Never had no weird hair to get my songs over
Never wanted to hang out after the showPop singer
Of pop songsNever wanted to have my, my picture taken
Now, who would want to look into these eyes?
Just want to make it real - good, bad, or indifferent
That's the way that I live, and the way that I'll dieAs a pop singer
Writing pop songsPop singer
Of pop songsNever wanted to be no pop singer
Never wanted to write no pop songs
Never wanted to have a manager over for dinner
Never wanted to hang out after the showPop singer
Of pop songsPop singer
Writing pop songsNever wanted to be no pop singer
Pop songsA pop singer
Never wanted to write no pop songs
