Leeway

I build a maze around myself construct a force field pay no attention to the man behind the curtain I wouldn't want you to think that I'm weak can't let you see that I'm afraid so instead i'm gonna put you down so instead i'm gonna push you around.
I rule as the king the reigning authority figure everyone is a role model in one way or another a brilliantly shining example of a right way or a wrong but there seems no way to determine what I have always known all along.
Cause I'm just a product which gives me an excuse to treat you like an object for my rotten abuse I'd rather turn it around than watch my guts cave in 'cause self destruction is much too ... tedious.
A prisoner inside of my ego I'll speak to you as a prophet can't you see I'm lying?
but I can't even stop it I must make an excellent impression in order to get what I want but I'm ever so bored and restless from only doing as I was taught.
I'm just a product ...
