

When a Woman's Had Enough

Shemekia Copeland

I tried to tell him time and time again
Just wouldn't gonna be his fool Patience growing thin
 Made it very clear A cheater always pays
Nothing I told that man Making change his waysIt's so hard to give up on your man
 Keep believing as long as your heart can
 Find lonely feelings Till the pain ain't got too much
 The whole thing changes suddenly
When a woman`s had enoughGonna come in here tonight and find he's all alone
 Gonna look in every room and find an empty home
 Gonna look in the closets, live those circus band
Look in the kitchen and find my good bun all there.It's so hard to give up on your man
 Keep believing as long as your heart can
 Find lonely feelings Till the pain ain't got too much
 The whole thing changes suddenly
When a woman`s had enoughGoing down to New Orleans find my old friend
Give rid of this misery and learn to love againIt's so hard to give up on your man
 Keep believing as long as your heart can
 Find lonely feelings Till the pain ain't got too much
 Then the whole thing changes suddenly
When a woman`s had enoughThis woman's had enough, just really really had enough - x4
