

Let the Killing Begin

Arch Enemy

Anxiety prevails in the end
On deathrow awaiting my fate
Sacrificed upon the altars of justice
Part of the ritual of ultimate fear
Determined men prepare to slay
Executioners axe draws near
On my way to depart from life
Lost all sense, as the gallows I will dieLet the killing begin
Let them end your life of sin
Feel the torment within
As the beauty of death sets in
Let the killing begin
Let them end your life of sin
Feel the torment within
As the beauty of death sets inCounting the days, the sleepless nights
Wide awake in a state of lunacy
Voices inside my head
Haunting memories, punishing me
Through a tunnel of madness
These endless catacombs
Left to die in a pit of confusion
Swept away by a wave of illusionLet the killing begin
Let them end your life of sin
Feel the torment within
As the beauty of death sets in
Let the killing begin
Let them end your life of sin
Feel the torment within
As the beauty of death sets inAnxiety prevails in the end
On deathrow awaiting my fate
Sacrificed upon the altars of justice
Part of the ritual of ultimate fear
Determined men prepare to slay
Executioners axe draws near
On my way to depart from life
Lost all sense, as the gallows I will dieLet the killing begin
