

When the Lavender Returns

Catman Cohen

As cold as ice
Wrapped round your brain
And darkness unfolds
You're breathing in pain
It's been freezing here
In this Land of Shattered Dreams
It's been freezing here
This corrupted winter stings
It's been freezing here
(O est la Lavande?)
Your body can't stay warm
(O est la Lavande?)
It's been freezing here
(O est la Lavande?)
This cruel and criminal storm
(O est la Lavande?) But don't give up
Don't despair
Taste the hope
Floating through the air
When the lavender returns
It'll warm your frozen bones
Vivid violet clothes
In their candy overtones
When the lavender returns
It'll race across the land
Rebel flower grows
In the palm of your free hand
If you look out your window
The grounds parched and bare
If you call for your lover
She's no longer there
If you ponder your life
Well, it feels like a wreck
And your failures are scars
You can never forget
As leaves turn brown
Sky fades to grey
You're feeling the drought
The end of the day
It's been lonely here
In this World of Fallen Souls
It's been lonely here
With nowhere left to go
But don't give up
Don't despair
Taste the hope
Floating through the air
When the lavender returns

Itll warm your frozen bones
Vivid violet clothes
In their candy overtones
When the lavender returns
(O est la Lavande?)
Itll race across the land
(O est la Lavande?)
Rebel flower grows
(O est la Lavande?)
In the palm of your free hand
(O est la Lavande?)
When the lavender returns
(O est la Lavande?)
Itll warm your frozen bones
(O est la Lavande?)
Vivid violet clothes
(O est la Lavande?)
In their candy overtones
(O est la Lavande?)
