Outstanding

Mark King

Unafraid of mocking fools
Standard as the golden rule
Catch a high from here to God knows where
Master of the underground, then stillStanding on the outside
Standing on the outsideWooden idols do declare
A paradox of mind arranging flare
A graven image chiselled in your psyche
Steel yourself before the impact, leaves you alwaysStanding on the outside
Standing on the outsideOutstanding in your fear
Outstanding sideways deepWhether it is nobler in the mind
Or above all you'll be in design
Giving rise to memories or worry
Carry me until you get your pleasures alwaysStanding on the outside
Standing on the outsideStanding on the outside
Standing on the outside
Standing on the outside
