

Halcyon Days

Two Gallants

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

When jealousy raps on the door
"Well what have you come here for"
"To whisper your dreams awayThey say you've loved too hard Enough to enrage the gods
And now there's hell to pay"And with your name upon my lips
i sunk down
and relived your farewell kiss as i drownedso i went off in search of advice though you warned me to think twice
"I see death on the sea my love"I sais "i'll return before long and we'll live in the light of the dawn" we heard faint laughter aboveAnd with your name upon my lips No one's ever loved like this
i sunk down
and relived your farewell kiss
as i drownedRun and see run to the shore and at your feet on waves I'll roll Still asleep drenched to the core and we will love like gods once more

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlrics.com/>