

Face Down

Link 80

fall from grace onto the floor. promising myself this won't happen anymore. same thing happens every night.
wait and wonder why i'm not living this life. a dreamer dies every night. fall awake into this life. don't need to open my eyes, to see what's right. carry the torch through the rain. drown it in memories of heartache and pain.
can't seem to shake the feeling of regret. they tell me it gets better, but it hasn't yet.
