Come In

Quiet One

They asked me how Iâ€™m feeling now,
But I donâ€™t tell the truth,
I guess the locks and padded walls give them a clue
They tell me to take my medicine,
Then Iâ€™ll feel all right,
I guess my belt and shoelaces put up a fight,
I guess they donâ€™t want me to hurt myself tonight.

Come in, Come inâ€¦
Come in from the pouring rain,
Come in, come in.
Come in, I can take your pain

I think I feel much better now, but this jacket it stays on,
It ties my arms in knots so they can do no harm,
Iâ€™m starting to see the man again,
Heâ€™s standing down the hall,
And he towers over me heâ€™s ten feet tall,
Is this the holy ghost or am I just a fool?

Come in, Come inâ€¦
Come in from the pouring rain,
Come in, come in.
Come in, I can take your pain

They tell me that my time has come,
And I should write to you,
So I could tell you all the things that Iâ€™ll never get to say to you,
They strap me to a table now,
And inject with the end,
And when Iâ€™m gone theyâ€™ll read the letter I had asked for them to send.

And it saidâ€¦

Come in, Come inâ€¦
Come in from the pouring rain,
Come in, come in.
Come in, I can take your pain
Come in, I can take your pain
