

How It's Done

Maren Morris

I know that you always brought but you never brought it back to you
Threw yourself in the hands of somebody who wasn't gonna come through
And it's always a shame watching you ache from the same wound
You don't have to walk through the fire to know that I want you
We can start with the touch of a hand like a movie scene
Moving into the weight that you've been wanting to put on me
There is no need to be nervous, I know you been looking for love, so
Let me show you how it's done
Yeah, I can show you how it's done
Ain't like this is foreign territory for you 'cause it's crossed your mind
I've been patiently waiting for the right time for a long time
But with the way you're looking at me, I can't complain, so baby keep trying Do whatever you want as long as you're gonna cross that line
We can start with the touch of a hand like a movie scene
Moving into the weight that you've been wanting to put on me
There is no need to be nervous, I know you been looking for love, so
Let me show you how it's done
Yeah, I can show you how it's done
I'll take your hand and your heart wherever Baby let me do it 'cause you know I know you better
Let me show you how, let me show you how
Let me show you how, let me show you how
It ain't fair what she's been giving
Now I'm on a mission for what you've been missing
Let me show you how, let me show you how Let me show you how
We can start with the touch of a hand like a movie scene
Moving into the weight that you've been wanting to put on me
There is no need to be nervous, I know you been looking for love, so
Let me show you how it's done
Yeah, I can show you how it's done
Let me show you how it's done
