Thug Love

Sharissa

Thug love, thug love
All she ever wanted was that thug love
Thug love, thug love
All she ever wanted was that thug love
Thug love, thug love
All she ever wanted was that thug love
Thug love, thug love
All she ever wanted was that thug love
Yo, hey yo, uhh
Yo, yo, yoyo, uhh
Aiyyo I met him at a club, spendin' dubs, Mr. Superthug
Pulled up with a group of trucks, everybody knew who he was
I ain't playin' the boy was cute, and I'm sayin'
We only danced one song but the whole night I was swayin'
Mesmorized by his style, could tell he was wild
But he had a touch of class and a million buck smile
Got a thing for a thug and he fit the profile
Thug love, think I'm buggin' brother let me know now
Yo, yeah, uhh, yo, yo
What's his name, what's the color of his Range
What's his game?
Was he kickin' it like he love his train
Full of octane?
Stop playin', know you ain't fall for that
Yo, he's pagin' me Ang' don't even think of callin' back
Man I know those cats, him and his click be flowin' crack
Up in Prominax, stickin' them kids by the laundromat
Pumpin' that two-for-five, the rules imply
Fuckin' with them dudes that's trife, you lose your life
It's a thug love
Searchin' for love in the wrong places
A thug love
Lovin' them rough with pretty faces
Even though he ain't right for you
Joe I like this dude, I need advice from you
It's a thug love
Searchin' for love in the wrong places
A thug love
Lovin' them rough with pretty faces

Even though he ain't right for you
Yo yo, uhh, uhh, yo
I just can't explain why women are attracted to danger
A thug and a player look the same in linen
But one's packin' a banger, I guess it's the anger
That be in they eyes
Mixed together with a pinch of they sensual side
That gets me energized
Fly and confidant, respected
And highly dominant
Got me on the rise every time
He draw me with compliments
Joey I'm fallin' for a thug, should I sacrifice
Or let it go brother you never gave me bad advice
It's only right that I let you know which route to go
No doubt fo' sho', once he hits it, he's out the do'
Know I seem like a cock-blocker but he's not proper
Besides you're my little sis, I gotta watch ya
Gotta stop you from dealin' with snakes
You're sealin' your fate let alone I feel it's your wake
Eliminate all the wrongs in your life
Don't you fall for them guys, like Pun says, it's all in the eyes
It's a thug love
Searchin' for love in the wrong places
A thug love
Lovin' them rough with pretty faces
Even though he ain't right for you
Joe I like this dude, I need advice from you
It's a thug love
Searchin' for love in the wrong places
A thug love
Lovin' them rough with pretty faces
Even though he ain't right for you
Joe I like this dude, I need advice from you
I only speak on what I know, he cheats, he gotta go
You think he ain't gon' creep, not at all
That's a damn shame, I see you fallin' for this man's game
The truth is even if he want it man he can't change
That's the life of a player livin' lies like the mayor
Hittin' them thighs, be wise and beware
But don't be surprised, one day you'll find a decent guy
Someone that cares and provides a peace of mind
I know you right but I'm torn inside
I got a jonz for a boy that was born to ride
My only vice, saw the guy, leave my momma mortified

It's no surprise, it happens all the time
Got me stressin' and I'm comin' back for me
Got me, checkin' my messages expectin' him to call
I need to, let it go need to stay focused
But can't, forget him yo so I remain hopeless
It's a thug love
Searchin' for love in the wrong places
A thug love
Lovin' them rough with pretty faces
Even though he ain't right for you
Joe I like this dude, I need advice from you
It's a thug love
Searchin' for love in the wrong places
A thug love
Lovin' them rough with pretty faces
Even though he ain't right for you
Joe I like this dude, I need advice from you
