All Rounds On Me

R. Kelly

Hey, me and my baby got into a fight
Man, it must have lasted all through the night.
By the time rooster crowed at the crack of the light
We made love, now everything's alright, yeah.
All the rounds on me cause I feel real good tonight
Said all the rounds on me cause I feel real good tonight
Yeah I'm back with my baby, everything gon be all right
Hey bartender, fix up a drink for every body in here tonight
Smile on my face and I'm ready to rock
Ain't got no bad news tonight
Well rge band is cookin', the girls good lookin'
Got my eye on only one tonight
Me and my baby, reunited and it feels so outta sight
I told her I was sorry, she forgave me
Now we gon ma some love tonight
Well the joint is swingin' & everybody's singin'
Rock & Roll songs tonight
Hey all the rounds on me cause I feel real good tonight
Hey all the rounds on me cause I feel real good tonight
Yes I'm back with my baby, everything gon be all right
All rounds on me, all rounds on me, all rounds on me, all rounds on me
all rounds on me, all rounds on me, all rounds whoo
Yes I'm back with my baby, everything gon be alright
Well now eveyrthing I own I'm gonna give it to my baby
Little girl, you know she drives me crazy
Last call and the parties over
We gonna get a motel room and make some babies
All the shots on me cause I feel real good tonight
Hey I'm back with my baby, Everythings gonna be all right
Hey
All rounds on me, all rounds on me, all rounds on me, all rounds on me
all rounds on me, all rounds on me, all rounds whoo
Said I'm back with my baby, Everythings gonna be all right
All right now
