

Saturday

Yo La Tengo

The room was filled with talk
For anyone listening
I found a spot by the door
With no one aroundLet my mind go
Out of tune
Out of tuneI kept a smile on my face
For anyone looking
Tried to turn away questions
Before he askedLet my mind go
Out of tune
Out of tuneI was engrossed in the film
Without really watching
Said, "who's the guy with the gun?"
As if I was involvedLet my mind go
Out of tune
Out of tune
