Eyes of a Stranger

Thunderstone

Eyes of a stranger are watching me
Haunting my every single move
I feel like a victim with no reason why
Still there is no fear at allI feel you, I hear you when you're not around
Presence so powerful, confusing me
But now I am here all alone with youTake a look behind and just realize
There's a stranger watching all of us
When you think you're alone, unprepared and so down
You might feel the eyes of a strangerProtecting and leading my steps through the life
Guiding my way in this world of fears
Sometimes I'm lost and I'm so afraid
It's hard to find my way out by myselfI feel you, I hear you when you're not around
Presence so powerful, confusing me
Now I am here all alone with youTake a look behind and just realize
There's a stranger watching all of us
When you think you're alone, unprepared and so down
You might feel the eyes of a strangerTake a look behind and just realize
There's a stranger watching all of us
When you think you're alone, unprepared and so down
You might feel the eyes of a strangerTake a look behind and just realize
There's a stranger watching all of us
When you think you're alone, unprepared and so down
You might feel the eyes of a stranger

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/