

Daisy Duke

Greg Paulus

I wanna know, all there's to know about you
I want you to know, nothing about me, although
I'll give you a taste, when you think that you know me
I'll blow you away, so baby
Bow down Daisy Duke
You don't know me so well, I think you know that now
I'm unbreakable, there's no need for fragile stickers
You're too young for me but I can keep a secret
I'm in total control of the situation
Bow down Daisy Duke
Sit on my couch, snuggle with me through the hard nights
Well, I don't bite, baby, I'll be good to you in the morning
Don't you say no to me, baby, big mistake
I'll throw you away, so baby
Bow down Daisy Duke
You don't know me so well, I think you know that now
I'm unbreakable, there's no need for fragile stickers
You're too young for me but I can keep a secret

I'm in total control of the situation
Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
I'm much too rough
With the way that I phrase things
I'm sorry for cuffing you
To my bathtub
Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
You don't know me so well, I think you know that now
I'm unbreakable, there's no need for fragile stickers
You're too young for me but I can keep a secret
I'm in total control of the situation
Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
Bow down Daisy Duke
