Raise Your Hand

Edwin Mccain

If there's something you need, woman
That you never had
Don't you sit there crying
And feeling bad, no, no, no
You better get up
Try to understand
And raise your hand
Oh, raise your hand
I'm standing about, baby
Wanna give you my love
Please let me try, darling
I'm gonna be good
You better get up
Try to understand
And raise your hand
Oh, raise your hand
Just raise your hand
'Cause I understand
If there's something you need, woman
That you never ever had

Don't you sit there crying
And feeling bad
You better be good
Try to understand
And raise your hand
Oh, raise your hand
You better be good
Try to understand
And raise your hand
Ooh, yeah, yeah
Just raise your hand
'Cause you understand
Just raise your hand
I'll be right here, sugar
Just raise your hand
You wanna be good
Try to understand
And raise your hand

Oh, raise your hand
