

Crazy Life

(hÉ™d) p.e.

I rise and stumble from the bed
It wakes the worries in my head
And I pour myself a bowl of Cheerios
    Think about the good and bad
    The happiness outweighs the sad
And the balance evens out the highs and lows
    Today there's lessons to be learned
    And there's progress to be made
Tomorrow I can say I'm a little older and wiser
    It's a crazy life, a crazy life
    It keeps you on your toes
You never know what lies in store for you
    Or where it's gonna go
    Hellos, goodbyes, you laugh or cry
You're free to pick and choose, you win or lose
    You're either wrong or right
    Yeah, it's a crazy life
I think of lovers come and gone
    And people I've depended on
And I subtract the pleasure from the cost
    Except for maybe two or three
    They've drifted far away from me
    Or maybe I'm the one who's gotten lost
But you can never go back home no matter how you try
    And once you've said goodbye
    You've said it all and it's over
    It's a crazy life, a crazy life
    It keeps you on your toes
You never know what lies in store for you
    Or where it's gonna go
    Hellos, goodbyes, you laugh or cry
You're free to pick and choose, you win or lose
    You're either wrong or right
    Yeah, it's a crazy life
    It's a crazy life, a crazy life
    It keeps you on your toes
You never know what lies in store for you
    Or where it's gonna go
    Hellos, goodbyes, you laugh or cry

You're free to pick and choose, you win or lose
You're either wrong or right
Yeah, it's a crazy life
Oh yeah, it's a crazy life
