Shed Your Skin

Love Like Blood

there is no time for feelings in your world this is not the time of harmony at all but there are crimes of violation I can see the signs of satiationturn around, around your eyes take a look, a look inside turn around, around your head take a look, a look insidecome on, shed your skin come on, shed your second skin tonightyou are not alone, open your mind try to find the roots of your heart come on and take this chance tonight ans show me your insideand all the fears, fears fall down like the trees of autumn let their leaves, leaves fall down like the trees in autumncome on, shed your skin come on, shed your second skin tonightfear is like a haze blocking everything real love, luck, joy of life it weakens your essencewhen the fear is so near let it fall down let the tears in your fears let them fall downcome on, shed your skin come on, shed your second skin, tonight
