Fall in Line

Plain Cities

Fake
Fake like weâ€™re gonna make it
Fake like we feel okay
Fade out into what they say
Itâ€™s a contrast to my mind
But Iâ€™m strongly disinclined
To the loneliness I find
In my own distinction

I think my brain
Is not the same
Itâ€™s not ok
I Fall in line again
I think my brain
It feels insane
Itâ€™s not ok
I fall in line again

Say
Say confidence is staged and
Say thereâ€™s a chance to change
Save, reasons to stay the same
Cause I want to nix the crowd
But when Iâ€™m standing by myself
Itâ€™s not as easy as it felt
Using my mind less

I think my brain
Is not the same
Itâ€™s not ok
I fall in line again
I think my brain
It feels insane
Itâ€™s not ok
I fall in line again

Why canâ€™t i shake off all their rules
Why canâ€™t i shake them like i wanted to
Why canâ€™t i shake off all their rules

Dichotomy of what i think and do

I think my brain
Is not the same
Itâ€™s not ok
I fall in line again

I think my brain
Is not the same
Itâ€™s not ok
I fall in line again
I think my brain
It feels insane
Itâ€™s not ok
I fall in line again
