

Gatekeeper

Feist

Well, it's time to begin as the summer sets in
It's the scene, you set for new lovers
You play your part painting in a new start
But each gate will open another June, July and August said
"It's probably hard to plan ahead"
June, July and August said
"It's better to bask in each others" Gatekeeper, seasons wait for your nod
Gatekeeper, you held your breath
Made the summer go on and on Well, they tried to stay in from the cold and wind
Making love and making their dinner
Only to find that the love
That they grew in the summer froze February, April said
"Don't be fooled by the summer again"
February, April said
"That half of the year, well, we'll never be friends" Gatekeeper, seasons wait for your nod
Gatekeeper, you held your breath
Made the winter go on and on Gatekeeper, gatekeeper
Gatekeeper, seasons wait for your nod
