stranded pearl

Giant Sand

there's a power in that division in the hour of revision when the taste of love has all but gone sourwhen i look into your eyes i surrender such surrender is rendered justified you stand with a boot upon my fender reflecting on my glass eyeout amongst the willows and the briars on the streets between the man made spires in the tangulation of too many wires love's translation still transpires every girl is like a pearl hearts strung along and then left strandedthis world is worn, all frayed and torn men in uniform is not what love had demandedwhen i look into your eyes i surrender such surrender is rendered justified
gingham hiked high, looking so fine reflecting on my glass eye i lost me my eye in a battle was sent to rattle their cage lost sight of the big picture now this permanent fixture is my rage
