

Only An Ocean Away

Sarah Brightman

I see a shadow every day and night.
I walk a hundred streets of neon lights,
    Only when I'm crying.
    Can you hear me crying.
So many times you always wanted more,
Chasing illusions that you're longing for.
    Wish I wasn't crying.
Can you hear me crying. There's an ocean between us.
    You know where to find me.
    You reach out and touch me.
    I feel you in my own heart.
    More than a lifetime.
    Still goes on forever.
    But it helps to remember
You're only an ocean away. Was there a moment when I felt no pain.
    I want to feel it in my life again.
    Let it be over now.
    Oh Oh over now.
'Cause I remember all the days and nights
We used to walk the streets of neon lights
    Oh I want you here with me.
Oh be here with me. There's an ocean between us.
    You know where to find me.
    You reach out and touch me.
    I feel you in my own heart.
    More than a lifetime
    Still goes on forever.
    But it helps to remember
You're only an ocean away. So many times you always wanted more,
Chasing illusions that you're longing for.
    Wish I wasn't crying.
Can you hear me crying. There's an ocean between us.
    You know where to find me.
    Just reach out and touch me.
    I feel you in my own heart.
    More than a lifetime
    It seems like forever.
    But I'll always remember

You're only an ocean away. Only an ocean away.
