You're Not Drinking Enough

Don Henley

I can see that you haven't recovered from the girl who let you down And you'd sell what is left of your soul for another go round You keep telling yourself she means nothing And maybe you should call her bluffBut you don't really believe it You must not be drinking enoughWell the perfume she wore you can buy down at the Five and Dime But on some other woman it don't smell the same in your mind You keep telling yourself you can take it Telling yourself that you're toughBut you still wanna hold her You must not be drinkin' enough You're not drinkin' enough to wash away old memories And there ain't enough whiskey in Texas To keep you from begging, please, please, please She passed on you passion and stepped on you pride Turns out you ain't quite so tough'Cause you still wanna hold her You must not be drinkin' enoughAsk yourself why You still wanna hold You must not be drinkin' enoughYou still wanna hold her You must not be drinkin' enoughYou still wanna hold her You must not be drinkin' enough
