Angels and Demons

Melissa Otero

I woke up this morning
Thinking what to wear
Don't know if I should be me
I'm a little scaredThe truth hides deep inside
What am I to say?
The past is left behind
And I don't want to explainI don't think you can see me
Believe when I say
One day I am restless
At night I'm awakeYou never believe me
So it's hard to explain
My soul has been captured
I hide in my painCos I'm no angel
I have two faces
I put one on for you
Put one on for me
These angels and demons won't set me freeWhat do you expect of me
To know who I am?
These scars run deep inside
They don't have an endYou know I have secrets
Yet you seem to deny
You know you can't change me
Won't put up a fightMaybe when I'm ready
I'll say how I feel
Heaven cannot find me
I don't know what's realWe find our own pleasure
Keeping to ourselves
My mind is a maze
Heaven and hellCos I'm no angel
I have two faces
I put one on for you
Put one on for me
These angels and demons won't set me freeAre you surprised
Of all my lies
I confuse myself
And I don't care to denyThat I'm no angel
I have two faces
I put one on for you
Put one on for me

These angels and demons won't set me free
