Sorority Noise

Kiss me like you mean it and by mean it
I mean lie to me againHold me like it matters and by matters
I mean walk away like you don't even know my nameTell me again that you don't want to break my heart
And I'll tell you again that it's already broken
Beg me again to get out of your head
And into your bed so you can fuck me like the restLove me like you used to
And by used to
I mean I'm a fucking jokeKiss me like you mean it
And by mean it
I mean walk away like you don't even know my nameTell me again that you don't want to break my heart
And I'll tell you again that it's already broken
Beg me again to get out of your head
And into your bed so you can fuck me like the restBut I want something more
No I want to feel pure
I wanna feel clean just like I used to
