Cheap Shot

John Mellencamp

Well, the record company's goin' out of business
They price the records too damn high
And the boys in the band could use some assistanceWell, the record company's goin' out of business
They price the records too damn high
And the boys in the band could use some assistance
Get a daytime job just to get byWell, the P.D.'s, they won't play the record
They're too worried about that book
And the D.J's, they all hate the song
But they're in love with the hookSo na na na
I bet you've heard this song before
Na na na
Take your cocaine and hit the doorWell, folk rock, punk rock, power pop music
Turned out to be the latest trends
And their ain't no more progressive music
The business has put it to an endOl' 'Rolling Stone' has gathered some moss
No, they ain't what they used to be
They try to look like "Look" with their political pages
And advertising all over T.V.So na na na
I bet you've heard this song before
Na na na
Take your cocaine and hit the doorNa na na
I bet you've heard this song before
Na na na
Take your cocaine and hit the doorNa na na
I bet you've heard this song before
Na na na
Take your cocaine and aWell, the record company is changing my name now, na na na
Well, the record company's goin' out of business, na na na
Well, the record company's goin' out of business, na na na
Well, the record company's goin' out of business, na na na
