Miracle

We Shot The Moon

Who's behind these walls
That we'll put up?
Am I losing touch,
Should I give up?
Lost at sea
Memories
Swim until I hit
Or can't get up
I'm waiting for a miracle
Every day, when I wake
I'm praying for a miracle
Every day, to come my way
Dancing in the sky
With the moonlight
I'm a silhouette
For a moment's time
Twenty-five
Is this my life?
Blue house, a wife
On my mind

I'm waiting for a miracle
Every day, when I wake
I'm praying for a miracle
Every day, to come my way
Looking for an answer
That might not ever come
So, I'm praying for a miracle
To come and pick me up.
A miracle
A miracle
(I'm waiting for a miracle)
Every day, when I wake
I'm praying for a miracle
Every day, to come my way
Looking for an answer
That might not ever come
So, I'm praying for a miracle
To come and pick me up

Y-eah -ah.
Y-eah
