

Oz Factor

Unwritten Law

Look to the sky at night and dream
In my mind you'll find the fiend
I don't think I can hold on much longer
The pressure gives in
And that's just a part of me well
Can't make my difference in this world
Where I am crazy
My mind starts wearing thin
Reality sets in
That's what I'm brought here for
What you can't see the oz will bring
By yourself you'll find the key
Only then you'll make the connection

A fine line between
What's known and what's unseen
Well can't make my difference in this world
Where I am crazy
My feet are on the ground
My head's up in the clouds
That's what I'm brought here for
The oz factor
That's what we're here for
That's what we're here for
The world comes to an end
Reality sets in
That's what I'm brought here for
