

I Want You Back (feat. AJ Lewis)

Oc3

Baby girl I know that you're still feeling me
It's been a long way girl I ain't leaving you
I know you thinking money has changed this fella
But I ain't change I'm the same old fella
Remember the piggy bank in the closet that I bought you Imma confess yes baby I stole it
And you knew it
You never want to blame a fella that you love, trust and you roll with
But I'm a fly boy now let me transport you
I'm not trying to brag I just want to love and trust you
They say love is blind so you got me all wonder
But I ain't Stevie Cus I like to see my girl's under
And how she smiles when I stroke her hair back
Girl you're my heart and I need you back
I'm a type of guy what I say is a fact Yeah I know is a fact Cus I need you back It's been a minute since we last spoke baby know in my heart that your still my lady
I want the good life so I move shady Another night another show I'm wavy
When I'm alone all my thoughts drive me crazy wrote you a note hope you haven't replaced me I've been to new york
Paris M.I.A
Kingston town where the girls don't play ATL girls lean like A but the LDN's where the bad girls stay
