You

Spetsnaz

Never pleased, always on the move
There's always something you've got to prove
On your knees misunderstood
You won't change though you know you shouldFight for position
Stay true to your mission
Climb all the 'dead limbs'
To fulfill your vision of you
And only youSharpened elbows, determined eyes
Pinpoint precise you deliver your lies
For now and forever you've broken my heart
You held it, smiled and tore it apartYou oversize yourself
And call it confidence
You disguise yourself
And call yourself a friendFight for position
Stay true to your mission
Eat your heart out
And feed your ambitions
Force all your feelings
Into submission
Burn all your bridges
To refuel your vision of you
It's always youOn your knees misunderstood
You can't change and you never wouldSharpened elbows, determined eyes
Pinpoint precise you deliver your lies
For now and forever you've broken my heart
You held it, smiled and tore it apartSharpened elbows, determined eyes
Pinpoint precise you deliver your lies
For now and forever you've broken my heart
You tore it, you tore it, you tore it apart
