

Fool That I Am

Etta James

Fool that I am
For falling in love with you
And a fool that I am
For thinking you loved me too You took my heart
Then played the part of little coquette
And all my dreams just disappeared
Like the smoke from a cigarette And oh, yeah, yeah, fool that I am
For hoping, oh, you'd understand
And thinking you would listen too
And oh, the things, the things I had planned But we couldn't see eye to eye
So, darling, darling, darling
This is goodbye
But I still care, but I still care And oh, fool that I am
Oh, but I still care
Fool that I am
