

The Last Year

Stiv Bators

(Bators - Secich)

this is the last year of my life can't seem to do much more than i've done gone and used up all the fun and the alternative is none this is the first time i've realized i loved believing all your lies and didn't mind it when you cried i plan on living just to die this is the final year i'm living out the very last year the end is flashing on the screen i'm living in the last year of my life
