

Calfskin Smack

Cocteau Twins

I have to follow my path/heart
Life, it, it just seems right, now And when I had you
I didn't always want you, baby
I'd cry myself out
But you survived and this amazed me Stiv, stiv, God made it claw (?)
(even into)
Call, call, calling to yourself
(calling to find)
Then find anger's a part of me
(anger's a cannibal)
You won, you're flawless, little fell (?)
