

Money Hungry Girls

The Young and the Useless

Money hungry girls, I know a ton, once all the money is gone, so is all the fun.
Money girls, their middle names are spend,
why am I so unlucky to always end up with them?
Eyes filled with dollar signs, have to pay to hear them whine.
My money is out of sight, have to pay to get a kiss good night.
Money hungry girls, make me so mad,
they take my wallet and everything I have.
Money hungry girls, the world is full,
one out of three ratio in my school.
