

Scream

BoA

Underneath a setting sun
Something wicked your way comes
Who am I? Just a dream
Sent to take you, shake you, make you scream
Try to see, there, behind my eyes
Be in me, ah, you're hypnotized
Such a moon, rare, we shouldn't waste
Very soon, ah, I'll have a taste
Should I let you awaken?
I can't resist
Look around you
You're forsaken
You scream
But there's nobody to hear
It doesn't matter
It's only you and me
And all of your fears
So scream
A Halloween serenade
Illusions shattered
Wait 'til you're really afraid
You're gonna, ah, ah
Run and hide, please from my embrace
In the night, ah, I love a chase
Tell me no, tease, before we kiss
Nice and slow, ah, I live for this Should I let you remember?
I can't resist
Gonna haunt you forever
You scream
But there's nobody to hear
It doesn't matter
It's only you and me
And all of your fears
So scream
A Halloween serenade
Illusions shattered
Wait 'til you're really afraid
You're gonna, ah, ah
Underneath the setting sun
Something wicked your way comes
Sent to take you, shake you, make you scream
Try to see deep behind my eyes
Destiny, ah, won't be denied
Don't you know, sweet, you're what I need
Flesh and bone, ah, you're gonna bleed
Should I let you awaken?
I can't resist

You're forsaken You scream
It's only you and me
And all of your fears So scream
A Halloween serenade
You're gonna, ah, ah You scream
It doesn't matter
It's only you and me
