Short Song

Real Friends

I found myself in late night drives with no destination All I had is thoughts of the past and a list of my favourite songs to keep me company But I still struggle and lose myself everyday I always find myself lost in all these lines of thought but I felt better when I saw that this is life and in life we're gonna cry in life we're gonna lose sleep we're gonna feel helpless but that's how it's gotta be
but that's how it's gotte be when you lose yourself you'll find what you're looking for
when you lose yourself
but that's how it gotta be
