Anything we should know about your change? -- Lullay, thou little tiny child

    By by lullay lullaye

    Lullay, thou little tiny child

    By by lullay lullaye

    O sisters, too, how may we do

        For to preserve this day

    This poor youngling for whom we sing?

    By by lullay lullaye

    Herod the King, in his raging

        Charged he hath this day

    His men of might, in his own sight

        All children young, to slay

    Lullay, thou little tiny child

        By by lullay lullaye

    For Thy parting, nor say nor sing

        By by lullay lullaye

    Then woe is me, poor child, for thee

        By by lullay lullaye
