Angel Eyes

Bob Thompson

Hey good lookin', good tonight, and every girl has got you
In her site, what you doin' with someone like me, surely one
Of lifes mystery.

[Chorus]
So tonight, I'll ask the stars above, how did
I ever win your love, what did I do, what did I say, to turn your angel eyes
My way.

Well I'm a girl who never learned to dance, never even got one
Second glance, across a crowded room was close enough, I could Look but I could never touch.

[Chorus]

Don't let me wake, don't let anyone wake me if its just a dream, cause
It's the best thing that's ever happened to me, oh you ladies, you can look all you like
'Cause this guy you see is leaving here with me, yeaahh

[Repeat Chorus]
