Strange Air

Forest Fire Gospel Choir

I was sitting down,
I was restless, off my feet.
I was shaking in my boots while I was catching all the heat.
When I look around, I'm alone without a trace,
Just the fireplace beside me waving torches in my face.

There's a strange air in the room.
I wanna know what it is
That's giving off that sweet perfume.
Strange air in the room.
Did it follow you in,
Did it follow you in alone?

When you wandered in, like an answer to my call,
For this house to be a home,
Where shadows flicker on the wall.
As a record spins, playing some old love-sick blues,
Where the bottom of the bottle where we keep our dancing shoes.

There's a strange air in the room.
I wanna know what it is
That's giving off that sweet perfume.
Strange air in the room.
You know tomorrow,
Yeah a new day is here gonna be here soon.

It's gonna be here soon.
It's gonna be here soon, oh.
It's gonna be here soon, whoa.

There's a strange air in the room.
I wanna know what it is
That's giving off that sweet perfume.
Strange air in the room.
Did it follow you in,
Did it follow you in, alone?
Alone?
