Don Quixote

Pencey Prep

You say it's not worth it
Been burned too many times
If your spine's receding
You can borrow some of mine
Don't go and quit right now
Cause I'd follow you through hell
And you can lie to everyone you meet
You're still not fooling yourselfI dance the same dance every night
It's only you you're killing
Super glue the queen of hearts
And the information she's spilling
And Matt DillonYou say so many things
And not a word of it was true
If you're still in that state of mind
I'd still vacation inside of you
Cause I think you're worth every minute
And every dime that I spend
I'll spend all my time fighting dragons
Just to keep you alive and talkingYour imagination's running wild
Round your deceptive heart
This is my crusade
And you're the unreachable star
But I'm reaching

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/